Membership Rates

General Member — $40 Any person currently employed by a court. General members receive full benefits of membership. General membership is conferred upon submission of an application and payment of annual dues.

Friend of the Courts — $40 Any person, firm or corporation, including vendors or consultants, interested in furthering the goals of MAACM. Friends of the Courts receive a copy of The Beacon and get the reduced rate for all conferences. Friends of the Courts do not have full membership benefits (e.g., they do not have access to the 'Members Only' section of the MAACM website, they cannot hold a position on the Board of Directors or Advisory Board and they cannot vote on any organization matters.) Friend of the Courts membership is conferred upon submission of an application, payment of annual dues, which shall be the same as General membership dues, and approval by the Board of Directors.

Emeritus Member — $40 Any former General member of MAACM who chooses to continue as a member in MAACM after retirement or resignation from their position with the courts. Emeritus Membership in MAACM must be approved by the Board of Directors. Emeritus Members receive full benefits of membership, except they cannot hold a position on the Board of Directors or Advisory Board. Emeritus Membership is conferred upon submission of an application, payment of annual dues, which shall be the same as General membership dues and approval by the Board of Directors.

Student Member — $5 Any person enrolled full-time in a degree program in the field of court administration, business administration, public administration, law, criminal justice or other related fields and not presently employed full-time in a court. Student Members receive full benefits of membership, except they cannot hold a position on the Board of Directors or Advisory Board. Student membership is conferred upon submission of an application, proof of registration in a degree program and payment of annual dues.
